

American Canadian Conference for Academic Disciplines

Toronto, Canada
May 25-28, 2009

Celebrating multicultural Canada, this refereed conference is staged over four days at Ryerson University in downtown Toronto. The conference brings together international professors and students to present research in their respective fields.

The presentations will be based on abstracts, papers, and proposals in any of the following tracks:

- Social Sciences and Humanities,
- Business and Economics,
- Teaching and Education,
- Engineering and Technology,
- Physical and Life Sciences, and
- Interdisciplinary Studies.

The best paper in each of these six tracks will be recognized through an engraved plaque. The reviewers will select the winning papers.

The registration fee for one day is $225; for two or more days it's $340; if a co-author is included as an attendee, it's $540. Food and lodging are not included in these registration fees.

Limited residences will be available to the attendees at housing facilities owned by Ryerson University.
